High School - Yearbook

A fleeting glimpse of the past four years.

Our victories, our defeats,
laughter and tears.

In order to express our life at Whitman-Hanson Regional High Schools, we, the graduating class of 1977, proudly present:

Without friends,
Survival in today's society
is impossible.
To be a friend, a man*
should be understanding,
compassionate, and possess
a heart full of love.
To be a friend a man*
should remember that no man knows all the answers, and that he should add each day
to his knowledge of how to live the friendly way.
To be a friend a man*
should remember that all men are created equal, yet all men are individuals, and they are different. They all need friends, However.

A true friend is what the world needs now. We, the class of 1977, acknowledge the true meaning of a friend, and strive to fulfill that meaning. Therefore, we dedicate this book to friends — everywhere.* Laurelyn Wright

"Smile! You're on Candid Camera!"

Bashfulness and gym shorts - the perfect couple . . .

It's the saddest feeling — saying goodbye to what you know has made such a big part Of your life . . . Leaving people, and the place that helped us learn what it means to grow up . . . to live . . . to love.
People who need people are the luckiest people in the world . . .

Play-dough - highly complex . . .

"Gotcha Last!"

"Why should we be in such a desperate haste to succeed, and in such desperate enterprises?
If a man does not keep pace with his companion, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer.
Let him march to the music he hears, however measured or far away."

Henry David Thoreau

A smile . . . the universal language of friends

Live life to the fullest!
Laugh — smile — be happy!
Make every second a special occasion
you only live once

The world is a looking glass, and gives back to every man the reflection of his own face.
Frown at it, and it in turn will look sourly upon you;
laugh at it and with it,
and it is a jolly companion.

Elizabeth Taylor leaves to all her teachers, 7 of her brothers and sisters.

Paula Tetrault leaves her sisters for W-H to handle.

Cindy Tirrell leaves Dayle Hermanson enough credits to pass this year.

Debbie Tobin leaves all the W-H teachers to her sister, Cindy.

Cheryl Torrey leaves her big sneaker for the next girl with big feet.

Fred Treptow leaves his statistician book to the unlucky quarterback.

Lynn Trevains leaves all the lucky students to the beloved Mr. Fox.

Linda Turcotte leaves Mr. Belden still shaking his head and wondering about my "cat."

Sharon Vaughan leaves on a jet plane.

Sandy Waisanen leaves Robert Redford to Mr. D'Alessio; and her brothers to the football coaches.

Debbie Wagner leaves her laughs to anyone who wants them.

Cathy Walackas leaves with her Caprimin one piece. I leave my sister Chris and a large bag of pistachio nuts to L.T.

Kathy Webber leaves Sheila Brigham another year of two rings - hang up the telephone after practices and games.

Cindy Weeks leaves her James Dean books to future rebels of W.H.

Chris Weiner leaves a map to space.

John White leaves his snare drum to Mr. Randall.

Gayle Williams leaves all her vocabulary sentences to Mr. Belden.

Peter Wirzburger leaves his spot on the bench to Mr. Deehan so he can sit on it.

Laurelyn Wright leaves to Nora and Vicki her share of wet walruses to whack as they please, with firm instructions to leave any unused portions to future wang worshippers; and the best of luck to the 1978 yearbook editor - it will come in handy.

IN MEMORIAM

ALAN LAAPERI

JULIE FLANNIGAN

I'd like to be the sort of friend
that you have been to me;
I'd like to be the help that you've been always glad to be;
I'd like to mean as much to you each minute of the day
As you have meant, old friend of mine,
to me along the way.

I'd like to do the big things and the splendid things for you,
To brush the gray from out your skies
and leave them only blue;
I'd like to say the kindly things that I
so oft have heard,
And feel that I could rouse your soul
the way that mine you've stirred.

I'd like to give you back the joy that you have given me,
Yet that were wishing you a need I hope will never be;
I'd like to make you feel as rich as I,
who travel on Undaunted in the darkest hours with you to lean upon.

I'm wishing as the days go on that I could but repay
A portion of the gladness that you've strewn along this way,
And could I have but one wish this year,
this only it would be;
I wish I could have been the sort of friend that you had been to me.
